

About Us

-

LB Insolvency Solutions is part of the LB Group service offerings which embraces the full range of accounting, auditing and tax expertise, including corporate finance/planning, forensic accounting, payroll bureau, pensions and investment advice, IT systems and business support.

-

LB Group have offices in Colchester, Chelmsford and East London and are well placed to look after the financial affairs of businesses and private individuals from London through Essex into East Anglia and beyond.

-

LB Group was founded in the 1960s and most of the directors have worked for international firms of chartered accountants and in commerce and industry. They are widely experienced in business issues far beyond traditional accountancy with a practical no nonsense jargon free approach.

-

Peter Byatt heads up LB Insolvency and Business Recovery Services. He is a Licensed Insolvency Practitioner and has gained much of his 30 years experience in London and Chelmsford as a partner with leading international accountants. He is a member of the Institute of Credit Management, of the Insolvency Practitioners Association and the Association of Business Recovery Professionals and has served on a number of his professional body working committees. He has authored technical books and magazine articles.

-

He has handled assignments comprising the full range, size and complexity of insolvency procedures and offers a wealth of experience to clients and professional contacts.

-

He takes particular pride in exploring solutions to secure the best chance of survival or turnaround and has successfully managed a large number of informal and formal moratoria which have preserved owner capital and employment.